

Environmental Education Volunteer Description

Purpose	To assist with nature education programs, working with individual children one-on-one, helping to hand out and collect supplies, and providing extra support for children that need more adult help.
Location	TLC Nature Preserves, possibly other locations <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Read TLC’s Education Guidelines in this handbook and the lesson plan/activity guides for the program.• Meet with TLC staff to discuss the educational activities planned for this program and what role the volunteer will have during the program.• Assist with the educational program by either facilitating agreed upon group activities or supporting TLC staff/other volunteers as they conduct the program.• Complete a background check
Key Responsibilities
Reports to:	Molly Richard, AmeriCorps Member
Time Commitment	3-4 programs a year
Age Requirement	14 years old and older
Qualifications	Previous experience working with children or a willingness to learn, feel comfortable speaking to groups of adults and children about nature and the outdoors, able to follow instructions and time tables, capable of passing a background check
Support Provided	TLC Nature Education programs are all led by the AmeriCorps member with the assistance of volunteers.